

MISCELLANEOUS.

TRADE WINNERS.

PURE GOODS,
Correct Weights,
Best Quality,
Low Prices.

POWELL & SNIDER
— THE LEADERS IN —
FINE GROCERIES
— AND —
TABLE DELICACIES.

AT COST.

Gents' Furnishings,
and Hats.

THE ENTIRE STOCK OF SEASON-ABLE GOODS IN THE ABOVE DE-PARTMENT AT PRIME COST, TO MAKE A CHANGE.

FIRST-CLASS GOODS! RARE CHANCE!
GREAT BARGAINS! CALL EARLY!

308 South Main St. BON MARCHE.

ARDEN PARK HOTEL

AND COTTAGES.

10 miles South of Asheville, on A. & S. R. R.

TERMS:
Per Month.....$40.00
Per Week.....12.00
Per Day.....2.00
Dinner and Tea Parties on one day's notice, 75 cents.

Thos. A. Morris, Prop., april 10 dtf Arden, N. C.

J. W. C. WILLS. ARTHUR J. WILLS.
WILLS BROS.,
ARCHITECTS,
ASHEVILLE, N. C.

Office Barnard Building. P. O. Box 554.
Plans, Specifications, Details, &c., for every class of building at short notice.

ARTISTIC INTERIOR DECORATION A SPECIALTY.
Call and see us. apr16d3m

Asheville, N. C., April 11, 1889.
The copartnership heretofore existing between the undersigned, under the firm name of PULLIAM & CO., is this day dissolved by mutual consent. The debts due by said firm will be paid by Lawrence Pulliam, and the debts due to said firm will be paid to him, and the business continued by him.
LAWRENCE PULLIAM.
D. C. WADDELL.

To our patrons of the past: I have this day sold my interest and good will in the insurance business in Asheville to Lawrence Pulliam, who will continue the business. I bespeak for him a continuance of your patronage.
D. C. WADDELL.
april 13d3d

HEY THERE!

A Word With You.
MITCHELL,

No. 28 Patton Avenue.

Wants to see you. His spring stock of

GENTS' FURNISHINGS

Is now almost complete. All the latest novelties now in stock or to arrive.

Ladies' and Men's Hand-Made Shoes in standard makes a specialty.

Ladies' and Men's Russet and fancy colored Oxford Ties in great variety for spring and summer wear.

MITCHELL,

NO. 28 PATTON AVENUE.

april 11 dtf

Room with board.
Nicely furnished room suitable for two ladies or gentlemen. Table boarders desired.
52 COLLEGE ST.
april 11 dtf

THE "RACKET."

New Goods

New Goods

New Goods

New Goods

New Goods

In all Lines

In all Lines

In all Lines

In all Lines

In all Lines

In all Lines

At the BIG RACKET

The BIG RACKET

BIG RACKET

RACKET

We have been receiving, marking and arranging our new Spring stock during the past two weeks. Two floors packed with goods. We have never been better prepared to serve the people than now.

and we invite everybody to come and see our goods and learn our prices. We have never advertised an article that we did not have, and never offered anything as a bargain that was not really and truly as represented, and are always ready to refund money where our goods are not as represented. Come to the "Big Racket."

REAL ESTATE.

WALTER B. GWYN. W. W. WEST.

GWYN & WEST,

(Successors to Walter B. Gwyn)

ESTABLISHED 1881

REFER TO BANK OF ASHEVILLE.

REAL ESTATE.

Loans Securely Placed at 8

Per Cent.

Notary Public. Commissioners of Deeds.

FIRE INSURANCE.

OFFICE—Southeast Court Square.

CORTLAND BROS.,

Real Estate Brokers,

And Investment Agents.

Loans securely placed at 8 per cent.

Office: 24 & 26 Patton Ave. Second floor.
Feb11d1y

JOHN CHILD,

(Formerly of Lyman & Child.)

REAL ESTATE

—AND—

LOAN BROKER

Strictly a Brokerage Business

Loans securely placed at 8 per cent.

SALE OF REAL ESTATE.

I will offer for sale at the court house door in the city of Asheville, N. C., on Saturday, the 30 day of May, 1890, at 12 m., the following described property: A lot of land, with the improvements thereon, lying near the old depot of W. N. C. R. R.
Co., adjoining the lands of Girwood & Mc-Lellan's old foundry lot, beginning at a stake on the east side of the railroad track, the A. W. corner of said foundry lot and runs with that line N 50 degrees E 100 feet to a stake; thence S 25 degrees E 45 minutes E 150 feet to a stake; thence S 100 feet 50 degrees W 100 feet to a stake; thence N 25 degrees E 45 minutes W 150 feet to the beginning, containing about one-third of an acre more or less.
This lot contains a good frame building with brick basement, 14 rooms, and a good well of water. Situated near the line of W.
N. C. R. R. and the C. & H. Graham cotton factory, and other factories near the new depot, it could be made valuable as a boarding or tenement house.
Terms one-third cash, balance in one and two years.
J. G. MARTIN.
april 11 dtf

JAMES FRANK,

DEALER IN

FAMILY GROCERIES AND PROVISIONS

Agent for Reems Creek Woolen Mills.

North Main
Feb11d1y

FOR SALE.

Tools and stock for a Plumbing and Tinning business. Enquire of C. S. COOPER.
House No. 28 Patton Avenue.
april 11 dtf

MISCELLANEOUS.
ESTABLISHED 1874.

W. C. CARMICHAEL,

APOTHECARY,

20 SOUTH MAIN STREET, ASHEVILLE, N. C.

For sixteen years I have carried on a Drug and Prescription business in Asheville, striving at all times to buy pure Drugs and sell no goods that are not strictly first-class in every respect.
Everything warranted as represented or money refunded. My goods are pure and fresh and my prices as low as the lowest. Prescriptions filled at all hours, day and night, and delivered free of charge to any part of the city.

Mr. J. Taylor Amiss is with me, and will be pleased to meet his friends and customers.

1879. 1889.

S. R. KEPLER,

DEALER IN

FINE GROCERIES.

Purveyor to intelligent and appreciative Asheville and American families. Palates and tastes of people who believe in good living cannot be humbly served by "Cheap John" goods. Cheap goods and first quality are not synonymous. I have in stock and to arrive, all seasonable specialties, comprising in part Fruits, Oranges, Lemons, Cranberries, Raisins, Figs, Nuts, etc.

Miscellaneous—Choice O. K.
New Orleans Molasses, for table use, Prime New Orleans Molasses, for cooking. Extra fine Assortment of Crackers. Fine Teas and Coffees a specialty.

Mince Meats—Gordon & Dilworth's, and other brands. Plum Pudding, Cal-l's Foot Jelly, etc. Pressed and Crystallized Ginger. Shad Roe in kits. Roe Herrings and all other goods in demand for the Holidays.
S. R. KEPLER.

We beg to return thanks for the substantial recognitions of our great pains in the collection of an unusually attractive stock, and to direct special attention to our medium and fine Dress Goods, Silks, Velvets, Satines, Gingham, Clothing, Underwear, Neckwear and Kid Gloves.

Correct styles at reasonable prices all along the line, with a number of desirable things, at a fourth below prevailing prices.

H. REDWOOD & CO.

Clothing, Dry Goods, Shoes, Hats, Small Wares, and Carpets.
7 and 9 Patton Avenue.

THE ## SHOE STORE.

Herring & Weaver,

— LEADERS —

IN SHOES OF ALL GRADES,

— AND —

FINE HATS.

39-Patton Avenue-39

Asheville, N. C.

THE DAILY CITIZEN.

THE INQUIRY—a protracted one—has caused a fierce light to be upon the alleged cruelties of Captain McCalla and other officers on board the Enterprise, and, in any case, the outcome is likely to prove of material benefit to "poor Jack."

IN CHICAGO the recent city election proved a great victory for the "Sunday rest" party, which opposes open bars, open theatres and opera immorality at full blast in the city. A decent regard for Sabbath quiet is now likely to be had in Chicago.

ROBERT L. LEE is a stoutly-built man of middle height, with a round face, full of hair, and an elongated white mountache. He is one of the four sons of the great Confederate general, and lives on a farm not far from Alexandria, where he leads the life of a quiet-going Virginia farmer, seldom obtruding himself upon the public gaze.

HENRY CLEWS, one of the best known bankers in New York, is bald on top, wears eyeglasses and affects the German opera. He began life as a broker's clerk, and when the war broke out, commenced to make money on his own account and laid the basis of the fortune which he afterwards accrued. He invested heavily in Georgia bonds which the State afterwards repudiated and caused him to fail, but he began over again, and is now rated among the millionaires of Gotham.
He has two sons and a house on Thirty-fourth street, besides a pretty turn for conversation. His face is adorned with a pair of mutton-chop side-whiskers and a moustache, and his home by a beautiful and queenly wife. He is fond of dining out.

WHAT THE SOUTH NEEDS.
Ex-Governor Robert Lowry, of Mississippi, writing in the North American Review, and speaking for his own State and for the South generally, says that three things are generally needed, namely: systematized labor, less legislation, and capital; and the greatest of these is capital.

From 1874, since the people of the South took things into their own hands and claimed for themselves home rule, the section has grown rapidly in wealth and prosperity, the Governor says. As an instance of this he mentions that in 1889 Mississippi spent $1,000,000 for public schools. This is a large sum certainly to one who has not lived in an atmosphere of public schools; but it must be remembered that some large cities of the Union spend each as much as that for education every year.

Contrary to the opinion of many, Mr.
Lowry declares that negro labor is and always will be the cheapest and best that can be obtained for raising cotton.
It might be mentioned that the negro has been raising something else than cotton in the South now for a number of years.
Both natural adaptability to the climate and natural inclination fit the colored man for cotton culture, in the judgment of Governor Lowry.

Too much legislation has been the bane of the South, says the Governor. He is a wise man to have discovered that.
Prophets and sages alike agree in the dictum that we have far too many laws and that the higher the civilization the fewer laws will be needed. The Governor longs to hear from one end of the fair South to the other the busy hum of factories, particularly cotton factories.
Mississippi is especially adapted to them, with cheap labor, cheap fuel, cheap land, no end of water, and the raw material raised in profusion.

Finally, 1890 finds the Southern States more prosperous than they have been any time in the last twenty-five years.
Mines, factories, farming and all vocations are reasonably remunerative. Capital is greatly needed to develop the resources of the country, and money invested in the South, we are to infer, would pay handsomely.

THE Democratic Tide Setting In.
Buffalo Times.

Straws are abundant showing that the wind is blowing the democratic way.
The West is becoming democratic. The republican fallacy is becoming better understood. The falsity of the party claims, the insincerity of its pretended reforms, and its protection of rich trusts and corporations are becoming more apparent to the people of the middle class and working people generally, who are the sufferers by the corrupt policy of the republican party.

THE Statesmen in a Quandary.
Dayton Times.

Republican statesmen in congress made so many promises during the Harrison campaign, which they cannot fulfil now, that life is becoming a burden to them.
The old soldier and the colored brother want now what was then promised, and they want it badly, too. If these promises are kept the country will be bankrupt, and if they are not kept some of the statesmen will not again go to congress.

Advice to Democrats in Congress.
Boston Globe.

When the people give the democracy a majority in congress, as they will surely do next November, it will be time enough to formulate a broad measure of tariff reform. Until then the work of the democratic members is to expose the grotesque features and pernicious principles of the McKinley bill. The republicans are dangerous, and they must pay the piper.

IN THE LONELY HILL GRIP?
Houston Post.

Spencer Reed must be losing his grip when he allows a bold, bad democrat to stand up in the house and flatterly charge that Deacon Harrison attained the Presidency by means of cash raised by Holy John Wamamaker and distributed by Blocks of Fives Dudley. Up to date the charge has not been denied by the republican leaders.

IT WAS ONLY A BLUFF.

THOUGHT THEY WANTED
TO LYNCH HARRIS.

Officer Hunter was informed of it but he didn't scare—New Theory Gaining Ground—
No Arrests To-Day.

There was some talk among the negroes of West Asheville last night of organizing a mob and lynching Tom Harris, who is in the county jail charged with the murder of Harriet Williams. A colored man rushed up the street and told as much to Officer Hunter, but he had no fear of such a happening and did not report it to the jailer.

Nothing unusual did occur and it is hardly probable that the enraged colored citizens will attempt to step in ahead of the law.

There were no more arrests made today, but the theory that the woman was murdered for her land and not the money on her person is gaining ground, and it is now thought that more implicated persons than the murderer were on the ground on Saturday night. Three trucks, two made by men and one by a woman, were found in a corn field adjoining the house, and the owner is willing to swear that they were made on Saturday night, and not during the day. He was near and would have seen the people when they were crossing.

Harris now will have nothing to say of his case, and it is claimed that Leah Foreman has told two different stories concerning her whereabouts on that night. One was that she was at her home and the other that she went to the old depot with friends. The old depot is on the road to the dead woman's home. The officers are following every clue and are doing their utmost to run down the guilty persons.

IN THE MAYOR'S COURT.

A Lot of Negro Offenders Who Fought and Cursed.

The Mayor's court was crowded with negro men and women this morning.
Several of their number, all of the weaker sex, were charged with fighting and using profane language and the remainder came along either as witnesses or to see that it was all done right.

Lillie Candler was the first one whose name was called. She was accused of saying naughty things to Jane Mills and was found guilty. Milley Wilson came next and her guilt was also easily proved and she was assessed $5. Then came the trial of Alice Kessler and American Sellers. Both were charged with breaking one of the commandments and Jane Mills was perfectly willing to admit that they had done it. The result was that America was fined $5.

After the court had adjourned the Mayor delivered a lecture to the audience.

"If you don't keep better order down there," he said, "I will have the place declared a nuisance and everyone of you moved out."

Henry Anderson, a plain drunk, was fined $5.

It was perfectly simple.

Several officers were seated about the sheriff's office yesterday discussing attorneys, their ways and their methods.
Among other things the habit of lawyers of abbreviating words and even sentences was spoken of and several instances were remarked.

"The worst instance that ever came before me," said Sheriff Reynolds finally,
"was sometime ago, and I will not forget it soon either. A document was brought to me just before court opened, and when I looked for the charge I only found the letters, 'K. F. W. D.' Of course I tried to make it out and couldn't do it, and then I made a rush for that lawyer, and finally run him down. He listened calmly to my complaint, took the paper and announced that the four letters in the complaint stood for killing fish with dynamite and that anybody ought to know that."

An Accidental Cutting.

John Baird, who works at the Farmers' warehouse, received a painful cut in his leg yesterday. He and Mr. E. B.
Davis, the auctioneer, were talking and Baird was worrying Mr. Davis in a playful way, when the latter remarked "I'll get you," and struck at him with a small pocket knife which was in his hand.

The blow was not intended to do any damage, but Mr. Davis' hand slipped and the blade of the knife struck Mr. Baird on the left leg just above the knee, penetrating about a half inch. Dr. Weaver dressed the wound and Mr. Baird will be confined to his room for a day or two.

The List of Listers.

The tax listers for Buncombe county for 1890 have been appointed. They are as follows: T. J. Carland, Avery's Creek; J. W. Morgan, Lower Hominy; B. L. Morgan, Upper Hominy; M. D.
Shook, Leicester; J. H. Reynolds, Sandy Mush; J. R. Garren, Limestone; T. J.
Young, Fairview; G. W. Young, Swannanon; Jas. McNain, Black Mountain; D. H. Reagan, Reems Creek; Isaac Holcomb, Flat Creek; W. H. Hunter, French Broad; S. F. Williams, Ivy; A. T. Summey, Asheville.

A Special Policeman.

For some time past a number of parties have been making merry around the gas house and the authorities have come to the conclusion that forbearance has ceased to be a virtue and asked for a special policeman. This morning William Davis was appointed and sworn in.

IT WAS ONLY A BLUFF.

THOUGHT THEY WANTED
TO LYNCH HARRIS.

Officer Hunter was informed of
it but he didn't scare—New
Theory Gaining Ground—
No Arrests To-Day.

There was some talk among the negroes
of West Asheville last night of organizing a mob and lynching Tom Harris, who is in the county jail charged with the murder of Harriet Williams. A colored man rushed up the street and told as much to Officer Hunter, but he had no fear of such a happening and did not report it to the jailer.

Nothing unusual did occur and it is hardly probable that the enraged colored citizens will attempt to step in ahead of the law.

There were no more arrests made to-
day, but the theory that the woman was
murdered for her land and not the money on her person is gaining ground, and it is now thought that more implicated persons than the murderer were on the ground on Saturday night. Three trucks, two made by men and one by a woman,
were found in a corn field adjoining the
house, and the owner is willing to swear
that they were made on Saturday night,
and not during the day. He was near and would have seen the people when they were crossing.

Harris now will have nothing to say
of his case, and it is claimed that Leah Foreman has told two different stories
concerning her whereabouts on that night. One was that she was at her home and the other that she went to the old depot with friends. The old depot is on the road to the dead woman's home. The officers are following every clue and are doing their utmost to run
down the guilty persons.

IN THE MAYOR'S COURT.

A Lot of Negro Offenders Who
Fought and Cursed.

The Mayor's court was crowded with
negro men and women this morning.
Several of their number, all of the weaker
sex, were charged with fighting and using profane language and the remainder
came along either as witnesses or to see that it was all done right.

Lillie Candler was the first one whose name was called. She was accused of saying naughty things to Jane Mills and was found guilty. Milley Wilson came next and her guilt was also easily proved
and she was assessed $5. Then came the trial of Alice Kessler and American Sellers. Both were charged with breaking
one of the commandments and Jane Mills was perfectly willing to admit that they had done it. The result was that America was fined $5.

After the court had adjourned the Mayor delivered a lecture to the audience.

"If you don't keep better order down
there," he said, "I will have the place declared a nuisance and everyone of you
moved out."

Henry Anderson, a plain drunk, was fined $5.

It was perfectly simple.

Several officers were seated about the
sheriff's office yesterday discussing attorneys, their ways and their methods.
Among other things the habit of lawyers of abbreviating words and even sentences was spoken of and several instances were remarked.

"The worst instance that ever came before me," said Sheriff Reynolds finally,
"was sometime ago, and I will not forget it soon either. A document was brought to me just before court opened,
and when I looked for the charge I only found the letters, 'K. F. W. D.' Of course I tried to make it out and couldn't do it,
and then I made a rush for that lawyer,
and finally run him down. He listened calmly to my complaint, took the paper
and announced that the four letters in the complaint stood for killing fish with dynamite and that anybody ought to know that."

An Accidental Cutting.

John Baird, who works at the Farmers' warehouse, received a painful cut in his leg yesterday. He and Mr. E. B.
Davis, the auctioneer, were talking and Baird was worrying Mr. Davis in a playful way, when the latter remarked "I'll
get you," and struck at him with a small pocket knife which was in his hand.